Mr. Jordan,

Thank you for your email to Dr. Fouche. As the Deputy Superintendent over Business & Operations, I am responding on behalf of the District to provide some clarification regarding the matters you raised.

The District takes its responsibilities regarding conflicts of interest, procurement, and financial transparency seriously, and I appreciate the opportunity to address your questions.

The employment relationship you referenced is well known to the District and has been disclosed to both our procurement department and our external auditors as required by law. Importantly, Mrs. Fouche's employment arrangement expressly prohibits any involvement in Frisco ISD business, and Dr. Fouche does not participate in purchasing decisions involving Lone Star Furnishings.

The District's purchases from Lone Star Furnishings are conducted through established competitive procurement processes, including purchasing cooperatives and District solicitations. Individual purchases are subject to applicable purchasing procedures, including requirements for multiple quotes. These processes are designed to ensure that purchasing decisions are based on the District's needs and applicable procurement requirements rather than personal relationships.

With respect to your questions about the specific disclosure forms required under Chapter 176 of the Texas Local Government Code, our procurement department is reviewing the applicable filing requirements and records to ensure they have been appropriately addressed.

The District's purchasing records, including expenditures and contracts, are subject to the Texas Public Information Act and may be requested through the District's established public information process subject to the applicable legal exceptions.

We recognize that you have a history of disagreements with the District, including public criticism of District leadership. You are entitled to raise questions and express your opinions as a member of the public. However, we expect that the information provided in response to your questions will be represented accurately and in context, rather than used to advance a broader narrative. Regardless, we remain committed to following the law, maintaining appropriate safeguards, and conducting District business with integrity and transparency.

FRISCO ISD

Subject: Question?

Superintendent Fouche,
I am writing to request clarification regarding Frisco ISD's conflict of interest disclosure requirements and the district's business relationship with Lone Star Furnishings LLC.
According to publicly available district check register records referenced at Frisco ISD Bond Facts, the district has paid Lone Star Furnishings approximately $47.2 million since 2014, with a substantial portion of those payments reportedly funded through bond proceeds.
The vendor's website indicates that your spouse joined Lone Star Furnishings in 2022, following her employment with Frisco ISD as Chief Technology Officer. Given the reported timeline, the district's continuing business relationship with the vendor, and your previous and current leadership positions within Frisco ISD, I believe it is reasonable to request clarification regarding the applicable disclosure requirements.
Specifically, I would appreciate written responses to the following questions.

1. Conflict of interest disclosures. Have you filed any disclosure statements required under Texas Local Government Code Chapter 176 concerning Lone Star Furnishings LLC? If so, when were they filed, and where can the public access them?
2. District review. Has Frisco ISD reviewed whether the employment relationship described above triggers any disclosure obligations under applicable state law or district policy? If so, what was the outcome of that review?
3. Public disclosure records. The district's publicly accessible conflict of interest information does not appear to show a disclosure relating to this matter. Is that information current and complete? If a required filing is missing, what steps will the district take to address the omission?
4. Procurement safeguards. What procedures does the district use to identify, disclose, and manage potential conflicts of interest involving district employees, senior administrators, their family members, and district vendors?
5. Vendor procurement records. Can the district identify the procurement processes, contracts, and applicable approvals governing its purchases from Lone Star Furnishings, including the use of bond proceeds for those purchases?

To be clear, I am not alleging that any individual has acted improperly. My purpose is to understand whether the applicable disclosure requirements have been satisfied and whether the district's public records accurately reflect the relevant information.
With a potential future bond election under consideration, transparency concerning vendor relationships, procurement practices, and required disclosures is particularly important to maintaining public confidence in the district's financial management.
I would appreciate a written response addressing these questions and links to any relevant public records. If the matter falls within the responsibility of another district official, please identify the appropriate office and advise whether the district will conduct a review.
Thank you for your time and attention to this request.
Sincerely,
Stephen Jordan

Thank you, Ms. Smith, I appreciate the detailed response. It's helpful to know the relationship was disclosed to procurement and to the external auditors, and that safeguards are in place limiting Mrs. Fouche's and Dr. Fouche's involvement. I'll represent all of that accurately. One thing I want to make sure I have right: my question was specifically about the public conflict disclosure filing required under Chapter 176. You noted procurement is still reviewing whether that filing was appropriately addressed. Could you let me know what that review concludes, and if a filing is on record, where the public can view it? If one was required and missed, I understand these things happen, I just want the record complete before the bond conversation. Thank you again for taking the time.

Ms. Smith,

One quick follow-up on my October 15 note. Do you have a sense of when procurement expects to finish its review of the Chapter 176 filing requirements, and when I might expect to hear the result? A rough date is fine.

Thank you,
Stephen Jordan
